The Chairmen's RoundTable Announces Addition of Four New Members

- Local Companies to Benefit From Mentors' Breadth of Experience -

San Diego, CA – March 1, 2006 – The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a San Diego-based, non-profit volunteer organization that provides gratis business advice and mentorship to local, private businesses, today announced that four new members have recently joined the organization: John Reardon, Dennis Bertken, Steven Osinski, and Bill Lennartz.

John Reardon is the founder/president of The RTC Group, an international media company serving the industrial computer market. He also serves on the boards of several companies including SBE, Inc. (Nasdaq: SBEI) and One Stop Systems.

Dennis Bertken is president of Pacific Pathway, an Asian trading and investment company. He has served as CEO, COO and executive management positions for companies including One Touch Systems, Inc., Apollo Group and Ecompanies/Change.com, where he built up extensive international market development experience.

Steven Osinski has extensive marketing and advertising experience especially within the wireless and telecommunications industry. He has served in executive management for companies such as TMP Worldwide/Monster and Smart Group, which he founded.

Bill Lennartz is the president and CEO of the San Diego Aerospace Museum. He has served as president and CEO for Reynolds Mason Machining, California Linear Devices, Avcon, Inc., Computer Power Systems Corp., Sciteq Electronics and Lencor International.

"Local companies will benefit from the breadth of experience that these new mentors add to our membership," said Tom Dorosewicz, Chairman of the Chairmen's RoundTable. "At last count, our members have cumulatively served in 127 CEO/presidential positions, sat on 264 Boards of Directors and 177 Advisory Boards. I am proud of the commitment of time and care that each of our members has given to help local executives address critical strategic issues facing their businesses. Together we can help strengthen San Diego, one company at a time."
