

CRT's New Sponsors

The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a San Diego-based, nonprofit volunteer organization that provides gratis mentoring and business advice to CEOs and presidents of local, private businesses, recently announced that Irving Hughes and Brown Law Group will be the sustaining sponsors for 2008.

"The CRT is sponsored by some of the most respected services firms in San Diego," says Hus Tigli, chairman of the CRT.

"The latest additions are no exception. Irving Hughes is the largest San Diego commercial real estate company that exclusively represents tenants. Brown Law Group is a powerful local law firm that specializes in preventative law. Both companies are very active in the community and recognize the benefits the CRT offers to San Diego business. They appreciate the value that the mentorship of more than 200 businesses brings to the individual companies as well as the local economy."

The CRT mentoring program has helped numerous local businesses succeed and make integral decisions. To date, they have worked with over 200 companies. (www.chairmansroundtable.com) — Ryan Thomas
