

Jack and Charlotte Hayes, Alice Reinig, and Norm Schoenfeld

Chairmen's RoundTable Turns Ten

To celebrate a decade of helping small businesses in San Diego, The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a local nonprofit volunteer organization that provides gratis mentoring and business advice, held a private celebration. "The Chairmen's RoundTable has provided an invaluable service to the local business community for the past ten years," Mayor Jerry Sanders told the press. "The successful CEOs who are members of this unique organization have contributed their time and expertise to mentor the leaders of more than 200 of our local companies as a way of sharing their collective experiences and giving back to their community. I applaud the Chairmen's RoundTable for its ten years of valuable contributions and encourage its members to continue their efforts." Over the years, the CRT has generated many inspiring success stories, including Red Door Interactive, Techflow, and Profit Line, to name a few. "We are proud and honored to have worked with the many savvy local business leaders that have taken advantage of our mentorship program over the years," says Hus Tigli, chairman of the CRT. The CRT was founded in 1997; over the past decade, more than 75 current and former CEOs have served as mentors. (www.chairmensroundtable.com) — Alicia Garcia, photo by Orlanda Guiang