The Chairmen's RoundTable Welcomes Tatum as New Sponsor

- Both organizations help companies accelerate business success -

San Diego, CA – February 5, 2007 – The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a San Diego-based, non-profit volunteer organization that provides gratis mentoring and business advice to CEOs and Presidents of local, private businesses, today announced Tatum, LLC has become a CRT sponsor.

Tatum is the largest and fastest-growing executive services firm in the United States. Its stated mission is to help companies in transition to accelerate business success and create more value. "Since our sponsors are an integral part of the CRT, we select them very carefully," said Hus Tigli, Chairman of the CRT. "Tatum's mission aligns well with ours, so we have the foundation for a strong partnership. We look forward to working together with Tatum to strengthen San Diego, one company at a time."

"Tatum's edge continues to be its unprecedented track record of providing velocity and value to clients' businesses," said Denis Trafecanty, Managing Partner, Tatum, LLC. "Our sponsorship of the CRT is an example of our commitment to supporting companies undergoing rapid and significant change. The mentorship that the CRT can provide companies during this time can be instrumental in their success. We are proud to sponsor the CRT's efforts which will benefit our clients as well as the San Diego business community."
