The Chairmen's RoundTable Enlists Three New Members

- New Members bring significant expertise to the non-profit mentorship program -

San Diego, CA – March 26, 2007 – The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a San Diego-based, non-profit volunteer organization that provides gratis mentoring and business advice to CEOs and Presidents of local, private businesses, today announced that three new members have signed on as CRT mentors: Holly Green, Patrick Richmond, and Steve Papadopoulos.

Holly is currently the CEO and Managing Director of the Human Factor, LLC, a management consulting company she founded. Holly has more than 20 year of executive level and operations experience in FORTUNE 100, entrepreneurial and management consulting organizations.

Patrick has held a broad range of executive positions including Division President of Primark Corporation, a former NYSE international information services company. He was also CEO of WEFA, Inc., a leading economic forecasting and analysis firm.

Steve is a very seasoned executive who has served as President of Instrumentation Labs, IMED Corporation, and Fisher Scientific as well as Chairman and CEO of EMD Biosciences.

"We are honored to welcome these three new members," said Hus Tigli, Chairman of the CRT. "They each share our passion for mentorship and recognize their involvement with CRT as an opportunity to give back to the business community. Their expertise will no doubt provide valuable insights to local business executives in future mentoring projects. To date, the CRT has mentored more than 180 local companies, and with the addition of these new members, our ability to reach out and offer assistance is that much stronger."
